

WRIT OF ATTAINDER AND PERPETUAL BONDAGE

Decree Number: XIV-CC-LI

Jurisdiction: The High Court of the Nurian Royal Administrative District

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

Pursuant to the Ancient Land Tenures and the Charter of Forest Rights of the Nurian Crown, let it be known that the merchant house known as Aelwood, heretofore operating as wood-cutters within the royal marches, stands convicted of the high crime of Purpresture and Unlawful Deep-Mining within the ancestral forest tracts designated as the Lower Aelwood.

FINDINGS OF FACT: Following an inquest by the Crown Harmonizers, it has been verified that the aforementioned merchant family did knowingly and with malice encroach upon the borders of the noble House Morivanter. Under the guise of simple timber-felling, said merchants did unlawfully sink shafts into the earth and extract precious gems—which, by right of blood and soil, belong solely to House Morivanter and the Crown. This theft has persisted for a period exceeding four grand taxation cycles, constituting a grave trespass against the High Peerage.

PENALTY AND INDENTURE: As the value of the stolen deep-wealth far exceeds the coin, property, and chattel of the offending merchant house, the law demands satisfaction through blood and labor.

Therefore, it is decreed that all timber-mills, mining gear, and extracted stores are hereby forfeit. Furthermore, to satisfy the remaining blood-debt, the head of the offending merchant house, their spouse, their living issue, and all descendants born to their line, are hereby stripped of their merchant charter and reduced to the status of Bond-Servants in Perpetuity.

They are by this writ bound over to House Morivanter, to serve in their mines, fields, or households without wages, until such a time as the Crown deems the debt balanced—which shall be no less than the natural span of their mythian lives. Resistance to this servitude shall be treated as High Treason, punishable by execution.

AUTHORIZATION AND EXECUTION: Command is hereby given to the Bloodmarks Enclave to seize the bodies of the condemned and deliver them to the estate of House Morivanter.

Given under our hand and the Great Seal of the District,

Fina val Nuria

High Proxy for the Nurian Crown

Femeret Malice

Grand Justicar of the Bloodmarks Enclave

